

*In Loving Memory of Noel and Blanche
'The Chusmans'*

37 year Sertomans

Everyone who knew Noel and Blanche also knew that these loving Sertomans would not be apart for any length of time. After Blanche's lost her courageous struggle against cancer, it was a given that Noel would be right on her coat tail as it were. 'Chris', affectionately known to his many friends, was the Club's last charter member. Blanche, a past LaSertoman in her own right, both leave a long and lasting legacy. They will both be surely missed by all who knew them !

Here's wishing the both of you 'God's Speed' !
